An Italian Pilgrimage: Wild Faith and Wild Art with Junelle Jacobsen

Workshop Itinerary

Monday:

9:30-12:30 Studio - Our first morning will be lively. We will be sharing our stories and making creative plans for the week. Our sketchbooks and cameras will be our morning focus (inspiration collecting) and each of our projects will be introduced. All of our creative projects will begin today!

Tuesday:

9:00 - 12:30 Studio - Espressos in hand we will outline our day's plans. I will help you pack a little "artist kit" for our day of plein air & outdoor sketching, and we will be off on our Tuesday morning adventure!

2:30 - 4:30 Studio - Inspired and filled with Italian sunshine, we will settle into our afternoon of sketch, stitch, and sip. Beautiful canvases will be started and our journals will be lovingly created.

Wednesday:

9:00 - 12:30 - On our way to some favorite locations we will be taking note of the "littlest things". Our sketchbooks will be our best friends this morning. Espressos on me, as we find ourselves captivated by this morning of sketching and watercolors.

2:30 - 5:30 Studio - shoes off and inspirations spread before us we will venture into our collections of goodies. Paints will be flowing from our fingertips as we transform our sketched inspirations into our own keepsake journals and , softies (little canvases) and love-notes.

Thursday:

My favorite...you know I loooove Market Day! We will be using all of our inspiration collection at the Market and creating playful art all day from our findings. Yes and yum!

Friday:

9:00 - 12:30 Studio - We will mix our sketches, photos, soft canvases, and words. Our sweet pilgrimage journals will fill to the brim with our personal touches! You will be amazed at the beauty of your handiwork.

2:30 - 5:30 Studio - Our time will be spent finishing things and working on inspiration collection for you to take home. You should always end a week filled to the brim with delights for weeks to come...
